THE CROONER

You live on attention, chemistry, and the trembling second before everybody gives in.

NAME

Pick a name:

Black Southerner: Pearline, Grace, Odessa, Viola / Louis, Booker, Caleb, Amos

White Local: Mary, June, Alma, Sadie / Clyde, Roy, Ellis, Vernon

Choctaw: Nita, Kaya, Fala, Aponi / Talowah, Hosa, Miko, Chayton

Irish Drifter: Nora, Maeve, Eileen, Brigid / Finn, Declan, Seamus, Eamon

LOOK

Pick one from each row:

Heritage: Black Southerner | White Local | Choctaw | Irish Drifter | ask the table

Age: young and dazzling | mature and magnetic | beautiful in a dangerous way

Eyes: laughing and inviting | smoky and tired | predatory when the lights go low

Build: graceful and loose | all curves or angles | lithe as a switchblade

Clothing: dance-floor finery | neat church clothes turned sinful | silk, satin, or something that catches the light

Signature: a voice built for close rooms | a scent nobody forgets | a smile that asks for trouble

BACKGROUND

Pick one.

FRONT-ROOM SINGER

You know how to hold a packed room together. When you sing to keep a crowd from panic, violence, or despair, take advantage.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you first heard me from the back of the room and came closer?
- Which of you knows what I sound like when I'm truly afraid?
- Which of you has seen me calm a room on the edge of breaking?
- Which of you thinks I only perform for myself?

MARRIED TO TROUBLE

You have obligations, lovers, and secrets tangled together. When someone tries to shame, trap, or expose you, roll +CHA. On a 10+, they lose the upper hand. On a 7-9, choose one: they hesitate, they reveal what they really want, or you slip away clean.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you knows whose ring I still wear or hide?
- Which of you have I kissed when I should not have?
- Which of you believes I deserve better than this town?
- Which of you saw the danger around me before I did?

AFTER-HOURS STAR

Your real work starts when the proper people go home. When you seek rumors, weakness, or appetite in a nightlife scene, ask one extra question after Read the Room or Discern Realities.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you has followed me after the music ended?
- Which of you knows what people confess to me in the dark?
- Which of you thinks I play a deeper game than I admit?
- Which of you have I made jealous?

TEMPTED ONE

You have looked over the threshold and wanted what looked back. The first time each session you resist an offer of power, belonging, or eternal pleasure, mark XP.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you caught me listening too closely to the wrong voice?
- Which of you knows what kind of forever I once wanted?
- Which of you thinks I might still choose it?
- Which of you keeps pulling me back toward the living?

STARTING MOVES

LOW-LIGHT SMILE

When you use allure, chemistry, or intimacy to get someone to lower their guard, roll +CHA. On a 10+, hold 2. On a 7-9, hold 1. Spend hold, 1 for 1, to ask a personal question they must answer honestly, get them alone for a moment, or make them hesitate before harming you.

VELVET VOICE

When you sing, hum, or speak softly over rising fear, choose one ally who takes +1 forward and one foe who falters for a moment.

EVERYBODY'S WATCHING

When all eyes are on you, take +1 armor.

CUT AND TURN

When you break away from someone in close quarters, roll +DEX. On a 10+, you slip free and may take someone with you. On a 7-9, you slip free but leave something behind.

TASTE FOR DANGER

When you chase desire into obvious trouble, mark XP if you see it through.

NO, YOU LOOK AT ME

When you meet the gaze of something seductive, supernatural, or predatory and refuse to look away, roll +CHA. On a 10+, it is unsettled; take +1 forward against it. On a 7-9, you hold its attention, but it learns something true about you.

ADVANCES

- Steal the Spotlight: When you enter a scene dramatically, everyone notices you first.
- Too Close to Let Go: When someone you've charmed would be harmed, take +1 ongoing to intervene.
- Killer Chorus: Your damage die becomes d10 when you attack with surprise, intimacy, or betrayal.
- Unfinished Business: Once per session, declare that someone important from your past is here tonight.
- Heartbreaker: When someone chooses you over safety, mark XP.
- Improved Stat: Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +2.
- Superior Stat (Requires: Improved Stat, at least one other advance): Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +3.

DRIVES

- Draw out a confession, desire, or weakness.
- Risk yourself for someone you should leave alone.
- Make a room revolve around you.
- Turn temptation into leverage instead of surrender.

Build: raw-boned | lean and restless | slight and wiry

Clothing: Sunday best gone threadbare | work clothes dusted with cotton | stage finery with one good shine

Signature: a beloved guitar | scarred fingertips | a voice that silences a room

BACKGROUND

Pick one.

PREACHER'S CHILD

You were raised to fear what moves through you. When you openly invoke scripture, prayer, or a hymn against a supernatural threat, take advantage.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you first heard me sing and knew it would cost me something?
- Which of you has seen me break a promise to my family?
- Which of you thinks my gift is holy?
- Which of you has already asked me to play for the dead?

JUKE PRODIGY

Your talent was too large for porches and fish fries. When you perform before a crowd that wants release, on a 7+ to Parley or Defy Danger through music, one nearby ally also takes +1 forward.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you put me in front of a paying crowd for the first time?
- Which of you heard me steal a melody from somewhere unnatural?
- Which of you keeps warning me not to chase applause?
- Which of you saw what happened the last time I played too hard?

CHURCH RUNAWAY

You learned to hide your hunger behind a clean shirt and a bowed head. When you Discern Realities about sin, temptation, or hypocrisy, ask one extra question.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you helped me leave before dawn?
- Which of you still thinks I should go back?
- Which of you knows what I did before I ran?
- Which of you reminds me of the home I abandoned?

GRAVE SINGER

You have sung over bodies and felt something answer back. When you spend a few moments singing over the dead, ask the GM what in this place refuses to rest.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you brought me to a funeral I cannot forget?
- Which of you has heard me sing to someone already gone?
- Which of you believes the dead listen when I play?
- Which of you fears what might answer me one night?

THE FIREKEEPER

Skrót zasad i opcji postaci do gry przy stole.

STARTING MOVES

VEIL-PIERCING SONG

When you sing or play with your full heart in a place of strong feeling, roll +CHA. On a 10+, choose 2. On a 7-9, choose 1.

- Draw out a hidden truth, memory, or spirit.
- Give everyone who follows your lead +1 forward.
- Hold back fear, panic, or despair for a few moments.

BORN FOR THE BLUES

When you Perform for people in pain, want, or grief, roll +CHA. On a 10+, they give themselves to the moment; ask the GM who in the scene is most changed by your music. On a 7-9, they feel it, but you also attract unwanted attention.

HEAR THE WRONG NOTE

When something supernatural enters the scene, ask the GM what sounds wrong about it. Take +1 forward acting on the answer.

SILVER RESONANCE

When you strike a supernatural creature with a silver instrument part, string, or slide, your attack gains ignores armor.

KEEP THE ROOM

When you step between panic and a crowd with your voice, roll +CHA. On a 10+, the crowd holds together and follows your lead. On a 7-9, they hold, but choose one: they demand reassurance, they leave someone behind, or you take the brunt of the danger.

NOT YET MY SONG

When death or possession reaches for you through music, roll +WIS. On a 10+, shut it out. On a 7-9, choose one: you shut it out but take disadvantage on your next roll, or you let it in just enough to learn something useful.

ADVANCES

- Open the Veil: When you use Veil-Piercing Song, on a 12+ choose 3.
- Borrowed Chorus: When you sing with an ally, both of you heal 1d6 HP.
- Hard Gospel: Your damage die becomes d8.
- Name the Hunger: Once per scene, ask the GM what a supernatural foe wants most right now.
- Last Note Standing: When you would be taken out while still holding your instrument, roll +CHA. On a 10+, stay standing with 1 HP.
- Improved Stat: Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +2.
- Superior Stat (Requires: Improved Stat, at least one other advance): Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +3.

DRIVES

- Play a song that tells an ugly truth no one wants spoken.
- Use your gift to protect your people, not just yourself.
- Follow a melody, omen, or story somewhere dangerous.
- Refuse to let fear silence you.

Heritage: Black Southerner | White Local | Choctaw | Irish Drifter | ask the table

Age: broad-shouldered and prime | scarred and seasoned | tired but still dangerous

Eyes: flat and hard | protective and watchful | haunted and sleepless

Build: thick and powerful | rangy and mean | heavy with old damage

Clothing: work shirt and shoulder holster | pressed suit with a hidden gun | military leftovers and boots

Signature: shaking hands you master by force | a war scar | a stare that ends arguments

BACKGROUND

Pick one.

WAR VETERAN

You learned to keep moving under gunfire. When you Defy Danger under bullets, explosions, or crossfire, take advantage.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you knows what the war made me do?
- Which of you trusts me with a gun but not with peace?
- Which of you saw me freeze once, and never forgot it?
- Which of you has asked me to teach you how to kill?

OLDER SIBLING

You have spent years cleaning up after somebody you love. When you take damage meant for an ally within reach, reduce it by 1d4.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you have I protected out of habit?
- Which of you keeps reminding me of someone I failed?
- Which of you knows the worst thing I ever did for family?
- Which of you thinks I hold on too tight?

CHICAGO MUSCLE

You enforced debts, threats, and last chances. When you Parley with naked violence and show you can carry it through, roll +STR instead of +CHA.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you has seen me collect on a promise?
- Which of you still wonders who I left buried up north?
- Which of you asked me for help I should have refused?
- Which of you believes I can never go clean?

LOCAL PROTECTOR

You stayed when others ran. When you Defend a home, business, camp, or community space, hold +1 Readiness.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you did I warn not to come back here?
- Which of you saw me stand my ground when everyone else ran?
- Which of you knows why this place matters to me?
- Which of you makes me believe it could still be worth saving?

THE HEAVY

Skrót zasad i opcji postaci do gry przy stole.

STARTING MOVES

GUN HAND

When you attack with a firearm at near range, deal +1 damage.

STAND IN THE DOOR

When you Defend a doorway, stair, bridge, or other choke point, on a 10+ hold 3 instead of 2.

COLD RESOLVE

When fear, grief, or supernatural pressure would make you hesitate, roll +CON. On a 10+, keep moving. On a 7-9, keep moving, but the GM chooses one thing you leave exposed.

HARD AS THE DELTA

You count as 1 armor.

ONE GOOD WARNING

When you clearly tell someone what will happen if they cross you and mean every word, roll +CHA. On a 10+, they back off, stall, or show you what they fear most. On a 7-9, they hesitate, but only for a moment.

DIRTY FIGHT

When you Hack and Slash, on a 10+ you may also choose one: disarm them, drive them where you want, or keep them off an ally.

ADVANCES

- Tommy Gun: When you unleash a burst from a prepared automatic weapon, it gains messy and forceful.
- No Retreat: When you Defend, even on a miss hold 1 Readiness.
- Blood and Smoke: When you take damage, take +1 forward against whoever dealt it.
- War Chest: You begin each session with one extra useful weapon or explosive the fiction supports.
- Can't Keep Him Down: When you would die from violence, roll +CON. On a 10+, survive long enough to finish one more thing.
- Improved Stat: Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +2.
- Superior Stat (Requires: Improved Stat, at least one other advance): Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +3.

DRIVES

- Protect someone who cannot survive the night alone.
- End a threat cleanly before it reaches your people.
- Pay an old debt in blood, money, or sacrifice.
- Refuse to let a bully decide who gets to live free.

Build: sleek and quick | elegant and wiry | soft until trouble starts

Clothing: city suit and polished shoes | neat dress and travel gloves | loud style bought with hard money

Signature: a cigarette between two fingers | a grin nobody trusts | cologne that arrives before you do

BACKGROUND

Pick one.

BOOTLEG RUNNER

You know how to move heat, liquor, and people through bad country. When you arrange transport or contraband, ask the GM what it will cost and take +1 forward dealing with it.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you rode with me on a run that should have killed us?
- Which of you knows where I keep the good stuff hidden?
- Which of you thinks I always have a second angle?
- Which of you still wants a cut from an old score?

SMOOTH TALKER

You can sell a dream before the room knows it needs one. When you Parley with promises of pleasure, profit, or belonging, take advantage.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you first believed one of my impossible ideas?
- Which of you caught me in a lie and stayed anyway?
- Which of you knows who I charm when I'm scared?
- Which of you keeps me honest more than I like?

BACKROOM LOVER

You have left trouble in too many beds and train stations. When someone wants more from you than you can give, ask the GM what dangerous opportunity it opens up.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you knows the one person I should not have left behind?
- Which of you saw me choose appetite over caution?
- Which of you came to collect on a promise I made in the dark?
- Which of you thinks I still confuse love with escape?

CLUB STARTER

You've opened parties in places that should never have worked. When you set up a night's business in a rough place, roll +INT. On a 10+, choose 3. On a 7-9, choose 2.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Word gets out to the right people.
- Cash starts flowing early.
- You avoid immediate trouble from the law or local power.
- You find one useful person before the night starts.
- Which of you did I recruit into one of my schemes?
- Which of you saw me turn a ruin into a payday?
- Which of you believes I can build something real?
- Which of you expects me to run when it collapses?

THE OPERATOR

Skrót zasad i opcji postaci do gry przy stole.

STARTING MOVES

READ THE ROOM

When you enter a crowded place looking for profit, danger, or weakness, roll +CHA. On a 10+, ask 3. On a 7-9, ask 1.

- Who here wants in badly enough to pay?
- Who here is one wrong word from violence?
- Who here is connected to local power?
- What's the quickest way out if this turns bad?

FAST HANDS

When you palm, plant, switch, or conceal something small, roll +DEX. On a 10+, no one notices until you want them to. On a 7-9, you do it, but leave a trace, a witness, or a bad suspicion.

EVERYBODY KNOWS SOMEBODY

When you arrive somewhere with money changing hands, name the sort of person you need; the GM will tell you where to find them or why they already know you.

AIN'T NO BOYS HERE

When someone tries to belittle, dismiss, or box you in, take +1 forward against them.

CUT A DEAL

When you offer a split, favor, or future opportunity to avoid immediate trouble, roll +CHA. On a 10+, they take it for now. On a 7-9, they want proof first.

HIDDEN BLADE

You always have a knife, razor, holdout pistol, or similar small weapon on you unless you are stripped and searched.

ADVANCES

- House Favorite: Once per session, declare that you are recognized and welcome somewhere you plausibly could be.
- Two Steps Ahead: When your plan goes wrong, ask the GM what you already prepared for this.
- Velvet Threat: When you Parley, on a 12+ they also reveal something useful.
- Quick Draw: The first time you attack from surprise in a scene, deal +1d6 damage.
- Make It Look Easy: When you escape by charm, disguise, or confusion, take advantage.
- Improved Stat: Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +2.
- Superior Stat (Requires: Improved Stat, at least one other advance): Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +3.

DRIVES

- Turn a bad room into your kind of room.
- Win someone over who should know better.
- Build something real out of lies and hustle.
- Take a risk for pleasure, style, or profit.

BACKGROUND

Pick one.

CONJURE KEEPER

You were taught the old work by blood. When you prepare a charm, ward, or feeding for an existing talisman, roll +WIS. On a 10+, choose 2. On a 7-9, choose 1.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- It lasts the whole night.
- It protects one person or threshold from supernatural intrusion.
- It reveals when it has been tested or broken.
- Which of you wears a charm I made?
- Which of you begged me for help too late?
- Which of you has seen my work save a life?
- Which of you fears what I had to pay for my craft?

CARD READER

People tell you more when they think fate is talking. When you lay cards, bones, shells, or signs for someone and they answer honestly, both of you take +1 forward acting on the reading.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you asked me a question you were afraid to hear answered?
- Which of you ignored my warning?
- Which of you knows I sometimes lie to spare a heart?
- Which of you keeps coming back for another reading?

HEALER OF THE QUARTER

You are the one people bring wounds, fevers, and messes to. When you spend a few minutes tending someone with herbs, touch, or prayer, heal 1d6 HP.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you showed up bleeding at my door?
- Which of you owes me for medicine or silence?
- Which of you stayed with me through a long night?
- Which of you saw me fail to save someone?

WIDOWED BY THE NIGHT

You have already lost something to hunger from beyond the veil. When you act directly against a supernatural creature, take +1 ongoing until the scene ends.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you knows the name of the one I lost?
- Which of you was there the night everything changed?
- Which of you thinks grief sharpened me into a weapon?
- Which of you still sees tenderness in me?

THE ROOTWORKER

Skrót zasad i opcji postaci do gry przy stole.

STARTING MOVES

ROOTWORK

When you prepare a person, place, or object against evil with roots, powders, water, prayer, or blood, tell the table what it looks like and roll +WIS. On a 10+, it works and choose 2. On a 7-9, choose 1.

- It is strong enough to turn aside a supernatural creature for a moment.
- It lasts until dawn.
- It does not demand an immediate sacrifice.

FEED THE MOJO

When you refresh an ally's charm or mojo bag, they take advantage on their next roll against curse, possession, or supernatural harm.

I'VE SEEN WORSE

When something impossible happens in front of you, you may stay calm and ask the GM what it wants, what binds it, or what keeps it out.

RAZOR FROM NOWHERE

When someone underestimates you in close quarters, take +1 damage forward.

HOUSE BLESSING

When you sanctify a doorway, room, or campfire before nightfall, the first supernatural thing that tries to cross it must hesitate, reveal itself, or pay a price the GM names.

SPEAK SOFT TO THE DEAD

When you whisper to a body or a haunted place, roll +WIS. On a 10+, the GM tells you something useful it remembers. On a 7-9, it tells you, but something else hears as well.

ADVANCES

- Strong Roots: When you use Rootwork, on a 12+ choose all 3.
- Bottle the Dawn: Once per session, produce a prepared sanctified mixture that counts as dangerous and magical against a supernatural foe.
- Old Name for It: When you first encounter a monster, curse, or spirit, ask the GM one extra question about how it can be resisted.
- Bone-Deep Calm: You are immune to mundane fear.
- Protective Circle: When the group shelters where you have prepared defenses, everyone heals your level in HP during Making Camp.
- Improved Stat: Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +2.

Optional Moves — Sinners

Jednostronicowa karta ruchów opcjonalnych do settingu.

OPEN THE JUKE

When the group turns a rough place into a juke joint, fish fry, rent party, revival, or all-night gathering, say who handled the music, the food, the money, and the door, then roll +CHA from whoever led the whole affair. On a 10+, choose 3. On a 7-9, choose 2.

- The right people hear about it.
- The crowd comes ready to spend, not fight.
- Local trouble stays outside for now.
- Something true and beautiful happens here tonight.

AFTER SUNDOWN TRAVEL

When you travel Delta roads, riverbanks, fields, or backwoods after sunset, roll +WIS. On a 10+, you avoid the worst of the night and arrive with warning enough to prepare. On a 7-9, you arrive, but choose one: you are followed, you leave something behind, or you see something you wish you had not.

HOLD THE THRESHOLD

When something dangerous wants to be invited in and you hold the line at a door, gate, campfire, or window, roll +CON. On a 10+, it cannot cross unless the fiction changes. On a 7-9, it stays out for now, but choose one: it gets in your head, it finds another way around, or someone inside cracks under the pressure.

THE HUNGRY SONG

When music, prayer, memory, or supernatural beauty tempts you to give yourself over, roll +WIS. On a 10+, you keep hold of yourself and may ask the GM what the song wants. On a 7-9, you keep yourself, but choose one: take disadvantage forward, reveal an ugly truth, or step closer before you stop.

PASS THROUGH HOSTILE TOWN

When the group must buy, sell, work, or move through a hostile town where the wrong eyes can ruin everything, roll +INT. On a 10+, choose 2. On a 7-9, choose 1.

- You finish quickly and cleanly.
- You do not owe a favor to local power.
- Nobody important learns your names.
- You spot the danger before it closes.
