- Cerean: Ki-Adi, Sylvar, Lorn, Belan / Tionne, Sela, Vara, Nomi
- Kel Dor: Plo, Aven, Koro, Desh / Seva, Lira, Kora, Pala
- Togruta: Raana, Nomi, Aslan, Kiran / Ahsoka, Miraj, Riyo, Sharl

LOOK

Pick one from each row:

- Species: Human | Cerean | Kel Dor | Togruta | ask your GM
- Age: youthful and earnest | middle-aged and measured | ancient and serene
- Eyes: searching and kind | still and unreadable | bright with inner light
- Build: slim and unhurried | tall and composed | small and deceptively present
- Clothing: fine Jedi robes | unadorned meditation wear | diplomat's vestments
- Signature: a meditation crystal worn as pendant | a journal of Force visions | a gift from a grateful world

BACKGROUND

Pick one.

DIPLOMAT

You have represented the Jedi Order in formal negotiations. When you Parley using the weight of the Order behind you, on a 7+ you always have a real chance of success — the GM cannot simply say there is no leverage.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you has seen me talk someone down from violence?
- Which of you did I speak up for at the Temple when no one else would?
- Which of you thinks I am too soft for the real galaxy?
- Which of you carries a secret I helped them keep?

LORE KEEPER

You studied the deeper archives of the Jedi Temple. When you Spout Lore about the Force, ancient history, or alien cultures, take +1.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you came to me for knowledge they couldn't find elsewhere?
- Which of you carries something whose origins I recognized immediately?
- Which of you distrusts what I know because of where I learned it?
- Which of you has asked a question I still haven't answered?

FORCE SENSITIVE

Your connection to the Force is unusually strong and unfiltered. Once per session, you may declare a Force vision as true — the GM must work it into the fiction.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you has appeared in my visions?
- Which of you trusts my instincts even when they can't explain why?
- Which of you finds my sensitivity unsettling?
- Which of you have I warned about something that came true?

MEDIATOR

You have settled disputes between factions, species, and cultures. When you step in to stop a conflict between two parties, both sides pause — the GM cannot immediately escalate unless a PC does something provocative.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you have I talked out of a fight they would have won?
- Which of you came to me when they couldn't resolve something on their own?
- Which of you resents me for stopping something they wanted to finish?
- Which of you do I still need to reconcile with someone?

STARTING MOVES

MIND TRICK

When you attempt to influence a weak-willed being with the Force, roll +CHA. On a 10+, they comply with a simple suggestion. On a 7–9, they comply but something costs you — they remember more than they should, or someone notices.

FORCE SENSE

When you open yourself to the Force to read a situation or person, roll +WIS. On a 10+, ask the GM three questions. On a 7–9, ask one.

- What does this person truly want?
- Is there danger here, and from where?
- What has recently happened in this place?
- Who here is hiding something?

TELEKINESIS

When you move objects with the Force, roll +WIS. On a 10+, you control it precisely. On a 7–9, you move it but the GM introduces a complication — too fast, too far, or too noticed.

CALMING PRESENCE

When you spend a moment in focused presence with someone who is frightened or angry, they lose that condition. They may gain another if the situation doesn't change.

FORCE BOND

Choose one other PC. You share a Force bond. When either of you is in mortal danger, the other always knows, regardless of distance. When you act to help each other directly, both of you take +1.

UNARMORED SERENITY

You do not wear armor. When you take damage, roll +WIS. On a 10+, reduce the damage by your WIS modifier. On a 7–9, reduce it by 1.

ADVANCES

- Deep Rapport: Your Force Bond can include a second PC.
- Farsight: Once per session, ask the GM a yes/no question about the future. They must answer honestly, but vaguely.
- Force Stasis: When you concentrate fully, you can hold a creature or object completely still for as long as you focus. You can do nothing else while maintaining it.
- Words of Power: Your Mind Trick works on strong-willed beings, but on a 7–9 the GM holds 2 against you instead of 1.
- Master Negotiator: When you Parley, a 7–9 result becomes a 10+ result. On a 10+, you get what you want and they owe you a favor.
- Improved Stat: Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +2.
- Superior Stat (Requires: Improved Stat, at least one other advance): Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +3.

DRIVES

- Resolve a conflict without violence.
- Share knowledge that prevents suffering.
- Protect someone's dignity when others would strip it.
- Act on a Force vision despite uncertainty.

BACKGROUND

Pick one.

PEACEKEEPER

You were trained specifically to protect the weak and uphold Republic law. When you Defend someone in your care, on a 10+ choose 3 instead of 2.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you has been in danger I could have prevented?
- Which of you did I rescue once — and how do you feel about owing me that?
- Which of you has seen me hesitate when I should have acted?
- Which of you fights dirty, and do I approve?

TEMPLE BLADE

You competed in the Temple's combat trials and placed among the top of your class. You start with the move Form Mastery even if you haven't taken it as an advance.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you has sparred with me and lost?
- Which of you has seen the Form I use and understood what it says about me?
- Which of you thinks I rely too much on my blade?
- Which of you has a fighting style that still surprises me?

WAR VETERAN

You served in open conflict — the Clone Wars, border skirmish, pirate suppression — before your Knighting. When you Hack and Slash against someone who is actively trying to kill you, deal +1d6 damage.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you has never been in real combat before?
- Which of you was hurt because of an order I gave?
- Which of you saw me do something in battle that you've never told anyone?
- Which of you thinks I've seen too much?

BODYGUARD

You were assigned to protect a dignitary before your Knighting and learned to put others first. When someone in your presence takes damage, you may choose to take that damage instead.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you am I still protecting out of habit?
- Which of you knows who I was assigned to guard — and what happened to them?
- Which of you keeps doing things that make my job harder?
- Which of you has saved my life in return?

STARTING MOVES

SABER DISCIPLINE

When you Hack and Slash with your lightsaber, you may roll +WIS instead of +STR.

DEFLECT

When a ranged attack hits you, roll +DEX. On a 10+, you deflect it completely. On a 7–9, you deflect it but choose one: you are off-balance (disadvantage on your next roll), or you redirect it but not at a target of your choice.

FORCE PUSH

When you hurl someone or something away with the Force, roll +WIS. On a 10+, they are hurled back and off-balance. On a 7–9, choose one: they stumble back, or they are pulled off-balance but you both stay close.

GUARDIAN'S STANCE

When you Defend with your lightsaber drawn, hold 1 extra on a 7+.

WATCHFUL EYE

When you study a combat situation before acting, roll +WIS. On a 10+, ask the GM two questions about threats or weaknesses in the scene. On a 7–9, ask one.

KNIGHT'S RESOLVE

When you act despite fear, pain, or doubt, roll +CON. On a 10+, ignore the effect and act with full strength. On a 7–9, act, but the GM holds 1 against you to use later.

ADVANCES

- Form Mastery: When you Hack and Slash, on a 12+ you also disarm, knock back, or terrify your opponent (your choice).
- Twin Blades: You may wield two lightsabers. When you do, deal +1 damage on a 10+.
- Shatterpoint: Once per scene, ask the GM "what is the weakest point here?" The GM must answer honestly.
- Unbreakable: When you would be taken out, roll +CON. On a 10+, you stay in the fight with 1 HP.
- Blade Mastery: Your lightsaber damage die increases to d12.
- Improved Stat: Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +2.
- Superior Stat (Requires: Improved Stat, at least one other advance): Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +3.

DRIVES

- Protect someone weaker than yourself from harm.
- Defeat a worthy opponent in single combat.
- Refuse to strike down a defeated enemy.
- Stand between innocents and something terrible.

Human: Anakin, Ferus, Obi-Wan, Bruck / Barriss, Darra, Siri, Tera

Togruta: Ahsoka, Mira, Sela, Kira / Rani, Teva, Nola, Sorin

Twilek: Bela, Koh, Raan, Lyos / Neva, Sira, Kira, Lyra

Zabrak: Bao, Tol, Ven, Erath / Rin, Vel, Sora, Kiran

LOOK

Species: Human | Togruta | Twilek | Zabrak | ask your GM

Age: young and uncertain | young and fierce | young and unusually calm

Eyes: eager and bright | troubled and questioning | wide and taking everything in

Build: small and quick | growing and a little awkward | slight and unexpectedly strong

Clothing: standard Padawan robes | robes worn with personal modification | borrowed gear that doesn't quite fit

Signature: a Padawan braid (the style says a lot) | a gift from your Master | a trinket from before the Temple

BACKGROUND

Pick one.

CHOSEN

You were identified as Force-sensitive unusually late, or your midi-chlorian count is exceptionally high. Once per session you may treat a roll as a 12+ by accepting a dark-side temptation — the GM offers, and you choose whether to take it.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you was there when I first demonstrated unusual power?
- Which of you believes in me more than the Council does?
- Which of you has seen me lose control of my power?
- Which of you worries about what I might become?

SURVIVOR

You were found on a war-torn world or escaped slavery before coming to the Temple. When you endure hardship, deprivation, or pain, take +1 ongoing until the situation changes.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you knows where I came from?
- Which of you protected me when I was still too angry to protect myself?
- Which of you has asked me about my life before the Temple — and what did I tell you?
- Which of you sees the galaxy the same hard way I do?

THE MASTER'S SHADOW

Your Master is well-known — respected, feared, or controversial. When you invoke your Master's reputation, roll +CHA. On a 10+, it opens doors and creates respect. On a 7–9, it creates complications as well.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you knows my Master personally?
- Which of you has offered to teach me something my Master hasn't?
- Which of you thinks I'll never step out of my Master's shadow?
- Which of you keeps a secret that involves my Master?

PRODIGY

You excel beyond your years in one discipline. Choose: combat, Force powers, or lore. When you act within that discipline, treat a 7–9 as a 10+. But your failures draw more scrutiny — the Council is watching you.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you tested my abilities and was surprised?
- Which of you has helped me when I failed despite my skill?
- Which of you thinks my talent is a burden as much as a gift?
- Which of you thinks I'm not as talented as the Council believes?

STARTING MOVES

STILL LEARNING

When you Spout Lore or attempt a move outside your training, on a miss you still learn something true. The GM tells you one honest fact about the situation even as things go wrong.

APPRENTICE'S BLADE

When you Hack and Slash with your lightsaber, you may roll +WIS instead of +STR. On a 12+, your Master's training guides your hand — deal maximum damage.

RAW FORCE

When you push yourself beyond your training and channel raw Force energy, roll +WIS. On a 10+, choose 2. On a 7–9, choose 1 but take –1 forward.

- Deal d10 damage to a nearby target.
- Knock everyone near you off their feet.
- Move a heavy object across the room.
- Shield yourself from an incoming attack.

BOND WITH MASTER

Name your Master (a GM character). When your Master is present, take +1 to all rolls. When your Master is endangered, roll +WIS to act rationally rather than impulsively.

QUICK STUDY

When another PC teaches you something through demonstration, you can use their move once before the end of the session.

EARNEST HEART

When you appeal to someone's better nature with genuine honesty — no tricks, no leverage — roll +CHA. On a 10+, they respond honestly in kind. On a 7–9, they soften but ask something of you.

ADVANCES

- Knighting: You are raised to Knight. Rename this playbook and choose a class move from any other Jedi playbook. You lose Bond with Master.
- Force Intuition: You always know when something is wrong, even when you can't explain it.
- Growing Power: Your Raw Force now gives 3 choices on a 10+ and 2 on a 7–9.
- Reckless Strength: Once per session, you may succeed automatically on a physical Force use. The GM names a consequence you must accept.
- The Force Protects: When you would die, roll +WIS. On a 10+, you survive with 1 HP and a vision from the Force.
- Improved Stat: Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +2.
- Superior Stat (Requires: Improved Stat, at least one other advance): Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +3.

DRIVES

- Make your Master proud in a moment that truly matters.
- Admit you were wrong and make it right.
- Stand up for someone when your Master would have stayed silent.
- Resist the temptation of a shortcut.

BACKGROUND

Pick one.

SHADOW

You were trained by the Jedi Shadows to hunt dark side artifacts and Force cults. You always know when you are being followed. You start with a holdout blaster (close/near, loud, small).

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you knows what I do in the Order's name?
- Which of you have I watched without you knowing?
- Which of you has asked me something I refused to answer?
- Which of you found out something about me I didn't intend to share?

INVESTIGATOR

You worked alongside the Republic Security Bureau or a planetary law enforcement body. When you Discern Realities at a crime scene or during an interrogation, ask one additional question beyond what the roll grants.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you helped me close a case I couldn't crack alone?
- Which of you has questions about how a case we shared ended?
- Which of you was once a suspect in something I was investigating?
- Which of you knows I bent the rules to get a result?

INFILTRATOR

You've gone undercover in criminal organizations, dark-side cults, or enemy territory. You can create a convincing false identity for yourself with a few hours of preparation. On a 7+ when maintaining a cover, it holds.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you knew me under a different name?
- Which of you has covered for me when my identity was almost blown?
- Which of you knows a cover story about me that isn't true?
- Which of you isn't sure which version of me is real?

TRACKER

You were trained in pursuit — by land, by space, through the Force. When you track someone across difficult terrain or through a city, you always find the trail. The GM can make it dangerous or costly, but never impossible.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you have I been sent to find before?
- Which of you ran from something — and have I asked you about it?
- Which of you knows someone I am still looking for?
- Which of you helped me catch someone, and how do you feel about what happened to them?

STARTING MOVES

READ THE ROOM

When you enter a new location and take a moment to observe, roll +WIS. On a 10+, ask three questions. On a 7–9, ask one.

- Who here is armed and dangerous?
- Who is in charge, and who resents them?
- What is being hidden or lied about?
- Where is the quickest exit?

SHADOW STEP

When you move silently and unseen, roll +DEX. On a 10+, you are not detected and in position. On a 7–9, you are in position but choose one: you make a small noise, you leave a trace, or you are briefly glimpsed.

FORCE EMPATHY

When you touch an object or place saturated with strong emotion, you experience a flash of what happened there. The GM tells you one true thing about a significant recent event.

DUAL STRIKE

When you Hack and Slash with a weapon in each hand, roll twice and take the higher result.

UNDERWORLD CONTACTS

You maintain a network of informants in the grey economy. When you seek information in an urban area, roll +CHA. On a 10+, you find it quickly. On a 7–9, the information is available but comes with a complication or cost.

FORCE CLOAK

When you concentrate and become still in the Force, you fade from Force-sensitive perception. Darksiders and Force adepts cannot sense your presence while you maintain this focus.

ADVANCES

- Perfect Disguise: Your false identities are flawless. Even Force users cannot sense the deception unless you reveal yourself.
- Ambush: When you Hack and Slash from hiding, deal +2d6 damage.
- Force Interrogation: When you press someone for truth through the Force, roll +WIS. On a 10+, they answer one question honestly. On a 7–9, they answer but know you've touched their mind.
- Ghost: When you move through an area being actively searched for you, roll +DEX. On a 10+, you pass unseen. On a 7–9, choose one: you pass, or you leave no trace.
- Blade Dancer: When you Hack and Slash, on a 7–9 you do not take the enemy's counter-attack.
- Improved Stat: Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +2.
- Superior Stat (Requires: Improved Stat, at least one other advance): Increase one of your stats by +1, to a max of +3.

DRIVES

- Uncover a deception that others have accepted as truth.
- Protect someone without letting them know you were there.
- Follow a lead to its end, no matter where it goes.
- Choose mercy when justice would have been easier.

Clothing: worn traveling clothes over old Jedi robes | patchwork gear from many worlds | no Jedi markings at all

Signature: a walking staff | a strange creature that follows you | a map of places that called to you in the Force

BACKGROUND

Pick one.

EXILE'S PATH

You left the Order voluntarily or were released by the Council to walk the living Force alone. Take +1 when you Spout Lore about the natural world, living creatures, or wild places. You also start with a loyal non-combat creature companion — ask your GM for details.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you knows why I left the Order?
- Which of you has asked me to come back — and what did I say?
- Which of you has followed a path as strange as mine?
- Which of you understands what I've given up?

LIVING FORCE

You were taught — by Qui-Gon Jinn or a lineage that traces to him — to trust the present moment over the grand design. When you act entirely on instinct without preparation, roll +WIS. On a 10+, the Force guides you perfectly. On a 7–9, you end up somewhere unexpected but unharmed.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you has seen me do something that shouldn't have worked?
- Which of you followed my instinct once — and what happened?
- Which of you thinks I am reckless when I call it trust?
- Which of you shares the same teacher in their lineage?

FORCE GHOST'S STUDENT

You have communed with a Jedi who has become one with the Force. Once per session, you may ask them one question. The answer is always true, but never complete.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you knows who guides me?
- Which of you do the voices mention?
- Which of you has tried to listen and heard nothing?
- Which of you has reason to fear what my teacher might know?

THE LONG ROAD

You have traveled more of the galaxy than most Jedi ever do. When you arrive somewhere new, roll +WIS. On a 10+, you've been here before or know someone who has — ask the GM for one useful piece of local knowledge. On a 7–9, you know something, but it is out of date.

When you introduce yourself to the other PCs, ask one or more of the following:

- Which of you have I met before, in a place neither of us expected?
- Which of you has never left their home sector?
- Which of you is looking for something I might lead them to?
- Which of you carries something I recognize from a world I've visited?

STARTING MOVES

LIVING FORCE AWARENESS

You are always attuned to the living things around you. In a natural or wild environment, the Force warns you of danger before it arrives. You are never surprised by creatures or natural hazards.

WANDERER'S BLADE

Your lightsaber is old and travel-worn, but perfectly maintained. When you Hack and Slash, on a 12+ choose one: deal double damage, your opponent's weapon is damaged or destroyed, or you end the fight without further bloodshed.

FORCE ATTUNEMENT

When you commune with a location, creature, or object in the Force, roll +WIS. On a 10+, you learn its history, emotional resonance, and current state. On a 7–9, you learn one of the three.

TRAVELER'S PEACE

When you sit and eat with strangers, offer help freely, or show trust first, roll +CHA. On a 10+, they treat you as a trusted friend for the rest of the scene. On a 7–9, they are cautious but open.

UNATTACHED

You carry no rank, no assignment, no political weight. When someone would use your institutional role against you — threatening your Order, pulling rank, leveraging your standing — it doesn't apply. You have no Order to threaten.

THE WILL OF THE FORCE

Once per session, describe what you believe the Force is pointing toward. The GM must confirm or deny it with a single word. If confirmed, the GM will arrange for you to find it.

ADVANCES

- Midi-chlorian Speech: You can communicate with any living creature through the Force, however primitive.

Optional Moves — The Jedi Order

Jednostronicowa karta ruchów opcjonalnych do settingu.

Homebrew World

Star Wars Jedi

JUMPING TO HYPERSPACE

When the group plots a hyperspace jump under pressure or through unfamiliar space, roll +INT. On a 10+, the jump is clean and fast. On a 7–9, choose one: the jump works but takes longer than expected, the ship takes minor damage in transit, or you arrive somewhat off-course and must orient yourselves. On a miss, the GM decides where you end up.

NEGOTIATING SAFE PASSAGE

When you attempt to secure passage through hostile or restricted territory by talking rather than fighting, roll +CHA. On a 10+, you pass without incident. On a 7–9, choose one: you pass but owe a favor, you pass but you are being followed, or you pass but only part of the group makes it through cleanly.

HUNTED

When Imperial forces, bounty hunters, or dark-side agents close in on your location, roll +DEX. On a 10+, you slip away cleanly, leaving no trace. On a 7–9, you escape but leave something behind: a witness, a hull ID scan, an item, or a contact who now knows your face.

MAKING CAMP IN THE FRONTIER

When you make camp in wild or dangerous space — a jungle moon, a desert rim world, an abandoned orbital station — roll +WIS. On a 10+, choose 3. On a 7–9, choose 2.

- The camp is hidden and secure.
- Everyone heals their level in HP.
- You gain one useful piece of local knowledge.
- You are not disturbed until morning.

RESONANCE OF THE FORCE

When you enter a place where the Force runs strong — a battlefield soaked in death, an ancient Jedi shrine, a world alive with the living Force — roll +WIS. On a 10+, the Force gives you a clear vision: ask the GM one specific question and receive an honest answer. On a 7–9, you receive a vision but it disorients you; take –1 forward and ask the GM one question whose answer may be fragmentary or symbolic.
